DETAILED ACTION

This application is a national stage filing of PCT/US04/41380 filed 12/10/2004, which claims benefit to provisional applications 60/529,331 filed 12/12/2003 and 60/625,707 filed 11/05/2004.

Claims 1-38 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-12, drawn to modified mRNA crosslinked to a tRNA.

Group II, claim(s) 13, drawn to a kit that generates a psoralen mono-adduct tRNA analogs.

Group III, claim(s) 14-17, 23-33, 36, drawn to a method of evolving a protein sequence by forming a plurality of protein-tRNA-mRNA molecule and identifying from these sequences with a desired property.

Group IV, claim(s) 18-22, 34-35, 38, drawn to a method of forming a psoralen mono-adduct.

Group V, claim(s) 37, drawn to a vaccine generated as a product by process of a method of evolving a protein.

The inventions listed as Groups I-V do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

A) The invention has no special technical feature that defined the contribution over the prior art, or

B) Unity of invention between different categories of inventions will only be found to exist if specific combinations of inventions are present. Those combinations include:

- 1) A product and a special process of manufacture of said product.
- 2) A product and a process of use of said product.
- 3) A product, a special process of manufacture of said product, and a process of use of said product.
- 4) A process and an apparatus specially designed to carry out said process.
- 5) A product, a special process of manufacture of said product, and an apparatus specially designed to carry out said process.

The allowed combinations do not include multiple products, multiple methods of using said products, and methods of making multiple products as claimed in the instant application, see MPEP § 1850.

Applicant's claims encompass multiple inventions and do not have a special technical feature which link the inventions one to the other, and lack unity of invention. As acknowledged in the present specification, in 1997, two groups Szostak et al., International Patent Publication WO 98/31700; Roberts and Szostak PNAS 94:12297 (1997); Nemoto et al., FEBS Letters 414:405 (1997) developed an in vitro method of attaching a protein to its coding sequence during translation by using the ribosomal peptidyl transferase with puromycin attached to a linker DNA. Further, the product of a vaccine claims 37 (produced by other methods) are well known in the art, as well as a variety of compounds that would anticipate the compounds included in the kit of claim 13 that would be used to cross-link a tRNA or oligonucleotide with a psoralen.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
